Urban land with 21.8 hectares in TAVIRA

Land in Tavira with 21.8 hectares, in the connection between the A22 and the city center of Tavira, in a place with excellent development potential.
The land is located in the vicinity of the city of Tavira, in the Western Algarve, 37 km from Faro (39 km from the airport), 300 km from Lisbon and 172 km from Seville.
The Pêro Gil Detail Plan, where the land is integrated, allows to develop a project with a total construction potential of 76,021 m² for residential residential space, a hotel, commercial space and equipment.
The area is divided into three execution units and a rustic area, facilitating the proper phaseof the project:
The Execution Unit 1 divides the space into nine lots, with one for hotel units, five for collective housing (two of them with trade) and three lots for equipment (one of them, for private clinic).
